UNION FOR REFORM JUDAISM

האיחוד ליהדות רפורמית
SERVING REFORM CONGREGATIONS IN NORTH AMERICA

Shalom Y'all!

As we are approaching the Jewish New Year and the High Holy Day period, the Days of Awe, it is imperative that we search for those whom we have wronged to ask forgiveness. As a matter of fact, the month prior to the High Holy Day period gives us the opportunity for introspection and reflection – Have we done what we need to do? Are we learning from our mistakes in the past and doing better?

"Forgiveness. Can you imagine?"

"Forgiveness. Can you imagine?"

These two lines come from the musical, Hamilton. When Alexander Hamilton admits to an affair, his wife, Eliza, understandably gets angry and pushes him away. However, with the death of their son, Philip, something happens to the two of them and Eliza is actually able to forgive Alexander. He begs her for forgiveness, and she forgives. So, which was harder - Alexander asking for forgiveness or Eliza granting it?

I believe it is very difficult to ask others for forgiveness. It requires humility and a true desire to listen and understand what someone else is telling you. Often, it can be very hard to hear what others have to say. It is not the "apologizing" that matters - it is the understanding and doing better next time which does. A blanket "I'm sorry" is nothing more than just words. Listening, understanding, and then changing - this is what matters...this is what counts.

What about giving forgiveness to others? If you are wronged by someone, is it possible to grant them forgiveness? This is a very personal decision...and really no one can expect or require something from someone else. In Judaism, we have a "vouch safe" with regards to forgiveness. If someone makes a genuine attempt to change and apologize, they are required to ask for forgiveness 3 times. After the third attempt, if the forgiveness is not given, the sin/need for forgiveness transfers to the one who was not able to give forgiveness.

But, the 3 requests must be genuine and heartfelt. They cannot be just blanket statements with nothing else to follow.

So, when Eliza grants forgiveness to Alexander, it was because she felt Alexander, her husband, was genuinely asking for her forgiveness. This was very hard for her - and it took great strength for her to do so.

Here is my prayer for Yom Kippur:

God - grant me the strength to ask for forgiveness.
Help me to regain the trust of those whom I have wronged.
May Your light shine upon each of us in the new year.

God - grant me the strength to give forgiveness.
Ease my anger against those who have wronged me.
May Your guidance drive me to being a better person.

God - grant us all the ability to move forward in 5784.
Alleviate our pain and sorry, help us to feel refreshed and ready for what lies ahead.

May God's Countenance be with us and point us to peace.

Beth Shalom

I look forward to seeing each of you for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur followed by Sukkoh! We have a brand new Sukkot that will hold 80 people so don't miss that Shabbat on September 29th. Rachel Leikach-Etheridge is heading up our break-the-fast this year. The signup sheet for food is in the lobby on the desk.

All Temple members will receive a new yearbook/directory and the updated bylaws at Kol Nidre. If the information in last year's yearbook was correct, you do not need to do anything. If there are any changes, please let Julie Rochlin know. Think about adding things like an ad or adding grandchildren's names, etc. Remember, our yearbook is our largest fundraiser.

We had 19 children attend our first day of Sunday school. We started last year with seven children so we have almost tripled our enrollment! Thank you Emily Rochlin, Carlie Buxt and Rebekah Erdvig for volunteering at Sunday school and of course Rabbi Buxt.

May each of us be inscribed for a Good Year! L'Shana Tova!

Highlights from the August board meeting

We discussed the importance of the High Holy Day letter and appeal.

Who, how and when to arrange the chairs for the High Holy Days.

A Code of Ethics is now highly recommended by the URJ. Kay has formed a committee to work on one. Emily Rochlin is the chair of the committee.

Discussed the yearbook and how to be as accurate as possible and to remind people that this year we will publish name, address, phone numbers and email addresses.

Jewish calendars will be available as always. This year they are sponsored by Roberts Funeral Home.

Discussion on whether to charge or not for the High Holy Days tickets. The decision was made NOT to charge.

The board voted to charge $36.00 per Sunday school family to cover craft materials.

Oneg Reminder

Temple Beth Shalom shall maintain a Kosher style kitchen, which means no treif food may be prepared, cooked, plated and/or served. Milk and meat items must be kept separated. The Social hall is a shared space, but during Temple events we will maintain the same standards of Kosher style and no treif food will be served and milk and meat items will remain separated.

Nosh & Nibbles
WED 9/13
Call for more information

Nosh and Nibbles has returned. The next informal and totally social luncheon, open to everyone, will be held at a local restaurant on September 13th. The location will be announced in Kay's announcements and in Joan's emails closer to the date. Everyone coming will be expected to let Cindy Stone know that they are participating so that she can give a proper count to the restaurant.

In lieu of an Oneg after Erev Rosh Hashanah services, the Sisterhood will be providing every attendee a box with some refreshments to take home. This is necessary as the social hall will be set up with chairs for members to attend services in the morning and it is not possible to be setup for serving refreshments and for seats to be configured for services at the same time.

Sisterhood is coordinating the "Break Fast" meal for after services on Yom Kippur. If you plan to attend, please sign up on the sheets provided at the foyer 'donut' counter.

Sisterhood has taken on the responsibility of providing the minimum of two platters of cookies for unsponsored Onegs. Sarina Handleman has agreed to be the contact person for getting people to sponsor Onegs. You may receive a call from Sarina or you may call her to arrange the sponsoring of an Oneg Shabbat after Friday evening services. Sponsoring may be shared by more than one member or family and may be in celebration of a special event or just because.

Congregants have been called with a request to sponsor Bimah flowers for the High Holidays. Anyone who has not yet responded can send a check payable to Sisterhood (with "HH flowers" in the memo) to the temple with "Sisterhood" on the envelope, $12 per Holy Day and identify if you are sponsoring Rosh Hashanah or Yom Kippur flowers or flowers for both days.

The next general meeting is not until October 15, but please save the date and plan to join us for a program about the Marion County Humane Society, one of our "Community Partners". There will be a donation box and congregants will be advised in advance of the program as to what supplies are most needed.

"We wish you all L'Shana Tova, and may your names be inscribed in the book of life for another year of good health."

Rachel Silver donation

There has been some confusion about DIRECTED donations at Temple Beth Shalom. Sisterhood's Bimah Flower/camp scholarship fund goes only to honor SIMCHAS. The Temple's Tree of Life also goes only for SIMCHAS.

Sisterhood sells Uniongrams, has YES Fund cards and TREE certificates for trees in Israel which can be purchased for Simchahs or remembrance. The Temple has prayer book dedications, and accepts contributions to many funds which can be made for any type of occasion. The Temple also has Memorial Plaques and accepts Yahrzeit donations only in remembrance of a deceased loved one. Members who wish to donate for something specific must select one of the appropriate destinations for their money.

Treasurer's Note

I would like to thank everyone who has come forward and helped Temple by honoring their commitments. Dues, pledges, fundraising and yearbook ads are the ways we keep things running. When you receive your statements we appreciate a prompt reply.

Janet Kreisman

Sisterhood Reminders.....

Please don't forget that Uniongrams can be ordered from Toby Burros-Topiol and Trees in Israel can be ordered from Amy Schwartz.

Contributions in honor of birthdays, anniversaries and other Simchas can be made to the attention of Joyce Levin

Mark in the memo of your check (payable to "Sisterhood, Temple Beth Shalom") that your check is for Uniongrams or Trees or the Bimah Flower/scholarship Fund.

Interfaith Emergency Services Monthly Dinners

The August 2 dinner was provided by Kay Fleischaker and the September 6 dinner will be provided by Nancy Miner. We cannot give these women enough thanks for stepping up to do this Mitzvah. It is not terribly difficult to do and can be very rewarding. At the moment we have a tentative commitment for October and December but need people to sign up to provide dinner for December 6. We have a commitment for January 3 but all of the rest of 2024 is open. The temple is committed to providing dinner on the first Wednesday of every month for the residents of the shelter at Interfaith Emergency Services. Please contact chairperson, Betsy Brody, (esb501@yahoo.com) to sign up or to ask questions.

PFLAG Ocala

PFLAG Ocala holds a monthly support and educational meeting for LGBTQ+ individuals, family members, and caring allies, every 4th Sunday at 1:00pm. For those in need of support, or are willing to learn how to be the presence of love and support to those in our families and our community, we hope you will come and connect with us. Our next meeting will be Sunday, September 24, 2023 at 1:00pm.

Temple Beth Shalom Book Club News

The Temple Book Club will meet next on October 18th to discuss “The Last Summer at the Golden Hotel” by Elyssa Friedland. The location is yet to be announced but the time is set, as usual, at 10:30 AM.

In August, the group met at the home of Michele Kolsky to discuss “People Love Dead Jews.” The book for December (12/7) is the biography of Benjamin Franklin by Walter Isaacson. It is a long book so if you plan to join in the discussion you might want to get started reading it soon.

It is time to submit suggestions of books for the club to read and discuss in 2024. Please send to club chairperson, Betsy Brody (esb501@yahoo.com): title, author, a brief summary and # of pages. We require that each book either have some Jewish content, be about a Jewish topic or, at least, be written by a Jewish author. Anyone interested can join the group. Please just contact Betsy to sign up and/or for additional information about the club.

COME TO OUR GIFT SHOP!

Welcome to the Judaica Shop! We have jewelry, books, talisim, kippot, and so much more! Our inventory is constantly changing, and we are happy to talk to you about your preferences and needs.

We are open before services, and by appointment (10 - 3 any weekday, when the temple is open).

CALL DIANA LAWRENCE FOR FURTHER INFORMATION - 352-624-0666

Wanted:

Help with Hebrew School. Do you like to work with children? No educational/work experience needed. Just a desire to help out in the Hebrew School--do a demonstration based on a holiday, tell about Ruth or another person from our history.

Call Emily Rochlin, the head of the Hebrew School, at 352-875-2070 to volunteer.

The Shabbat Morning Experience will consist of a mixture of two elements: Study and Prayer. We will study our prayer book: its structure, its theological ideas, its music and more... and we will do parts of our Shabbat morning service in between the various segments of the study.

Our intention is to have at least one Shabbat Morning Experience every month.

It will start at 10:30 AM
