Prayer for Rosh Hashanah Services
Open your eyes today and look around.
See every nook and cranny present in the world.
Make sure you do not miss even the smallest detail.
Observe all that you may have missed before.

Listen with open ears to every sound present.
Hear the birds, the insects, the distant sounds of children.

Take it all in - even the sounds that may have seem annoying before.
Perceive what each sound means to you, today.

Reach out and touch something different.
Feel the bark on the tree or the grass under your feet.
Sense the significance of everything present.
Experience the texture of all you see, everywhere you look.

Smell the grass, the landscape, the flowers.
Get a whiff of strange new smells that are present.
Sniff the world, one smell at a time.
Detect, really identify the smells, the strange and the usual.

Taste the air - oh so wonderful to take that next breath.
Savor something new - perhaps something you have been afraid to taste.
Relish in what you have always loved, the familiar.
Distinguish the tastes of one thing from another.

Baruch Atah, Adonai, Yotzeir Ha'Morot.
Blessed are You, Lord, who forms light.

Prayer for Yom Kippur
God - grant me the strength to ask for forgiveness.
Help me to regain the trust of those whom I have wronged.
May Your light shine upon each of us in the new year.

God - grant me the strength to give forgiveness.
Ease my anger against those who have wronged me.
May Your guidance drive me to being a better person.

God - grant us all the ability to move forward in 5785.
Alleviate our pain and sorrow, help us to feel refreshed and ready for what lies ahead.

May Your Countenance be with us and point us to peace.

The President's Message

Board Meeting Tuesday,
October 8 at 6:30 PM

This year, the High Holy Days are perhaps the most important Jewish event of our lifetimes. After nearly a year of war with Hamas and now Hezbollah, failed negotiations for the release of the remaining 101 hostages, and the surge of antisemitism, we experience fear about the future.

As we come together to observe the High Holy Days, we are reminded of the deep-rooted traditions that bind us as a community and as a people. These days serve as a bridge between our past and our future, a time to honor our heritage while embracing the potential for positive change.

As we dip apples in honey and hear the blast of the shofar, let us be reminded of the sweetness and richness that life offers. May these holidays inspire us to strengthen our bonds of family, friendship, and faith, and to strive for a year filled with love, understanding, and meaningful connections. Let us embrace the spirit of forgiveness, compassion, and hope and may this season be a time of spiritual growth and introspection for us all, allowing us to move forward with renewed purpose and determination.

In closing, Darrell and I wish you a happy and healthy New Year. May you be inscribed in the book of life.

Welcome to our new members : Andrea and Doug Gray

ATTENTION ALL: On Sunday, October 13 at 2 PM Sisterhood will present an open meeting for everyone. There will be a speaker from the League of Women Voters who will give the pros and cons and answer questions about the six (6) State Constitutional Amendments on the ballot. The League is a political but totally non-partisan organization. The League does not ever support a candidate but it does take positions on issues they have studied and come to a consensus about. The State League of Women Voters has positions on one or two of the amendments which the speaker will share. For the most part the speaker will not give an opinion or advise how to vote but hopefully when you have left the meeting you will have a better idea of the facts involved and be able to make up your own mind. Save the date on your calendar and plan to be there.

INTERFAITH DINNERS

In October, because the first Wednesday is “erev Rosh Hashanah” the Rochlins have offered to provide the money directly to Interfaith for the staff to purchase dinner so that none of us will have to interrupt our holy day preparation to bring the food. To them another major thank you!

The job is not difficult. It is easier if done with others. It can be fun and is usually fulfilling and rewarding. It is always appreciated by the residents of the shelter at Interfaith. If you have never provided a dinner please consider signing up to do one. All dates are taken through 2024 but no one has signed up for 2025 yet, so you can have your pick of dates. Temple Beth Shalom is responsible for providing dinner on the first Wednesday of every month and we have been doing this for more than 25 years. Please consider taking a date. contact Betsy Brody for details [352-347-5597 or esb501@yahoo.com]. Betsy provides whatever paper supplies you don't have. and will give you a sheet with guidelines and instructions.

Temple Beth Shalom Book Club News

The next book, "Not Our Kind" by Kitty Zeldis, will be discussed at the home of Betsy Brody on Wednesday, October 16 at 10:30 AM. If you are interested in joining our group, read the book and call for directions. Everyone is welcome.

We meet every other month. The December book is "Delicious" by Ruth Reichl. The date and location of that discussion will be listed in the November and December bulletins.

There has been some confusion about DIRECTED donations at Temple Beth Shalom. Sisterhood's Bimah Flower/camp scholarship fund goes only to honor Simchot. The Temple's Tree of Life also goes only for Simchot.

Sisterhood sells Uniongrams, has YES Fund cards and TREE certificates for trees in Israel which can be purchased for Simchas or remembrance. The Temple has prayer book dedications and accepts contributions to many funds which can be made for any type of occasion. The Temple also has Memorial Plaques and accepts Yahrzeit donations only in remembrance of a deceased loved one. Members who wish to donate for something specific must select one of the appropriate destinations for their money.
